

Terex Parts

Terex Parts - Terex Forklifts stands by their goal to deliver a consistent and cost efficient product line. They take satisfaction in manufacturing equipment that improves their customers' earnings. Through numerous divestures and acquisitions designed to expand the product offering, Terex has recently expanded dramatically. They have improved their geographic coverage to enable them to supply quality standards and value for their broad consumer base.

Terex has remained a competitive player in the materials handling and industrial equipment sector. They are working towards building a franchise under the brand name Terex by incorporating all of their preceding brand names for many of the goods used in conjunction business the brand Terex. Currently, Terex products are principally marketed under the Terex name. Some of the following historic name brands and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Fermac, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has shown steady development, acquiring PPM Cranes, in 1995 while divesting Clark Material Handling in 1995. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Terex quickly grew their mining and Crane operations with the acquisition of O&K mining, TerexLift, Gru Comedil, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Construction business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They quickly became a leader within the crushing and screening industry by buying Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane manufacturers were also added to Terex in 1999.

By purchasing Fermac, a dedicated manufacturer of tractor loader backhoes, in the year 2000, Terex expanded into the Compact Equipment marketplace. Their Light Construction business continued to expand business with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

In 2001, Terex expanded their Roadbuilding division operations with the acquisitions of CMI, Bid-Well, Load King, Atlas and Jaques.

A small number of the acquisitions that took place in 2002 helped allow Terex to develop into a leader in their respective categories. Advance Mixer helped drive Terex into the concrete mixing market, while Demag helped Terex Cranes become a leader in the crane industry. Buying German suppliers Fuchs and Schaeff positioned Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment class. Genie became a primary maker of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed business with the acquisitions of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which provided company-owned circulation for Terex Utilities.

A company called Tatra was acquired in 2003. This company created heavy duty vehicles for military and off-road commercial functions. Acquiring Combatel and Commercial Body the same year enabled Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities supply.

In the year 2004, Terex purchased a maker of surface drilling equipment utilized in mining, construction and utility markets, called Reedrill. Also in the same year, Noble CE (formerly referred to as Terex Mexico) was purchased by Terex. They produce high capacity surface mining vehicles and also fabricate many parts for other Terex companies.
